WHEREAS I have full evidence, that Henry Hulton, Charles Paxton, William Burch, and John Robinſon, Eſquires, have frequently and lately treated the characters of all true North-Americans, in a manner that is not to be endured, by privately and publicly repreſenting them as traitors and rebels, and in a general combination to revolt from Great-Britain. And whereas the ſaid Henry, Charles, William, and John, without the leaſt provocation or colour, have repreſented me by name, as inimical to the rights of the crown, and diſaffected to his Majeſty, to whom I annually ſwear, and am determined, at all events, to bear true and faithful allegiance; for all which general, as well as perſonal abuſe and inſult, ſatisfaction has been perſonally demanded, due warning given, but no ſufficient anſwer obtained. THESE are therefore humbly to deſire the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, his principal Secretaries of State, particularly my Lord of Hillſborough, the Board of Trade, and all others, whom it may concern, or who may condeſcend to read this, to pay no kind of regard to any of the abuſive miſrepreſentations of me or my country, that may be tranſmitted by the ſaid Henry, Charles, William, and John, or their confederates, for they are no more worthy of credit, than thoſe of Sir Francis Bernard, of Nettleham, Baronet, or any of his cabal; which cabal may be well known from the papers in the Houſe of Commons, and at every great office in England.

JAMES OTIS.

Meſſrs. EDES and GILL,

Pleaſe to inſert the incloſed copy of a letter to me, from the Collector, with the Obſervations, and you will much oblige your friend,

JAMES OTIS.

"SIR,

WHEN you firſt informed me of your diſſatisfaction at an expreſſion, wherein your name happens to be mentioned in an official report from me, as collector of this port to the Board of Cuſtoms, I then declared to you, that I had no intention or deſign by that expreſſion to caſt any perſonal reflection or cenſure upon you, which declaration as above I now confirm under my hand, and to which I ſhall add, that ſo far from intending any harm to you by that mention of your name, I ſhall be ſorry if any detriment ſhould happen to you by that means.

I am, Sir, your humble Servant,

JOSEPH HARRISON."

Boſton, Auguſt 11, 1769.

Mr. Harriſon is too contemptible in my opinion, to take any further notice of at preſent, than to declare, that I think him if not a very wicked, yet a very weak old man. To charge a perſon by name as inimical to the crown, and then give it under hand that no reflection was meant, is either lying, or a mark of ſuperannuation. As to official reports, my charge against Mr. Harriſon was not confined to them: Had it been, he has no right to uſe my name in his official reports, unleſs I obſtruct him in his office, which he knows I never did.------The Commiſſioners too are far gone in the doctrine of official reports. And it ſeems to be a current opinion among them, that the moſt infamous ſlander imaginable, handed into their board, and ſworn to, no matter by whom, nor before what juſtice, is ſufficient to ſupport a memorial to the Treaſury or Parliament. It is ſtrange, conſidering the frequent conferences and communications between thoſe able lawyers, Governor Hutchinſon, Judge Auchmuty, the Attorney-General, Joſeph Philanthrop, and the Commiſſioners, theſe have not learnt law enough to know they have no right to ſcandalize their neighbours.---'Tis ſtrange, that Mr. Robinſon, even in his Welch clerkſhip, could not find out that if he "officially" or in any other way miſrepreſents me, I have a natural right, if I can get no other ſatisfaction, to break his head. None but ſuch ſuperlative blockheads as H. Hulton, C. Paxton, W. Burch, and J. Robinſon, could think gentlemen amenable to them, unleſs they hold under them.

JAMES OTIS.

To the PRINTERS.

Pleaſe to inſert the following Extracts, which I had been furniſhed with from England, before I certainly knew the Originals exiſted, and you will oblige your Friend,

JAMES OTIS.

CHARLES PAXTON, of Boſton, New-England, teſtifieth and ſaith, that BENJAMIN BARONS, Eſq; Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the port of Boſton, in order to carry on the deſigns complained of, entered into a confederacy with the following perſons, viz. Mr. Benjamin Hallowell, ſenior, who, for ſome years paſt, hath publicly profeſſed himſelf an enemy to the Court of Vice-Admiralty in this Province, and hath declared the ſame to be a nuiſance! and ought to be laid aſide! or words to that purpoſe! And James Otis, junior, Eſq; who reſigned his commiſſion of Advocate-General! and immediately thereupon appeared Advocate for the meeting hereafter to be mentioned! and ſundry other perſons, who are ſuppoſed to have been concerned in carrying on an illicit trade! "The deponent exhibits the adver-tiſement hereunto annexed, which he produced to be ſigned by the principal Merchants of Boſton, although before this meeting, they were at great variance, as not to ſpeak to one another." "This deponent has been chiefly enabled to make the many ſeizures he has done, by means of the ſums which were allowed him for his expences in procuring private intelligence; which private intelligence had been ſo ſecretly carried on, that it hath not hitherto been penetrated into." "This deponent ſaith, that he hath heard the ſaid James Otis, junior, one of Mr. Barons's confederates, as before-mentioned, talk with great diſreſpect of, and threats againſt the GOVERNMENT!" "That ſoon after this, he and Mr. Barons became very intimate, though before that, they were not upon ſpeaking terms; and that after the intimacy between them, Mr. Barons, and Mr. Otis, while the affair of the Merchants was pending, as before mentioned, he heard Mr. Otis ſpeak diſreſpectfully and threateningly of the Governor, as he underſtood, and further refers to what he has before depoſed."

P. S. The principal part of theſe extracts were ſigned and ſworn to by ſaid Charles Paxton, the deponent, 28th of February, 1761, before the Hon. Chambers Ruſſell, Eſq; deceaſed, and the ſaid Charles, can tell, if he pleaſes, before whom he ſwore to the reſt, and I believe I can, and when I think fit, I will.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. OTIS to his Council.

Gentlemen,

BESIDES the action of defamation againſt Sir Francis Bernard, of Nettleham, Baronet, I had it in contemplation to purſue the ſame method againſt Hulton, Paxton, Burch, and Robinſon, for the many unprovoked and unparalleled falſehoods they have uttered, written and publiſhed of me; but on more mature deliberation deſire that no ſteps towards a proceſs of that kind may be taken, at leaſt for the preſent. 1. For, that I ever had a general averſion to actions of this kind. Every man's character is good or bad: If good, ſuch action will not make it better: If bad, no ſuch action can mend it. 2. On a more careful peruſal of the papers and publications in my power, and duly conſidering the characters of the above Five, I cannot, in my conſcience, think either their tongues or their pens any ſlander. 3. On the contrary, I have ever had the pleaſure to find, that, in full proportion to the malice and detraction of thoſe, and the reſt of the Cabal, my reputation has been more firmly eſtabliſhed in the opinion of thoſe with whom I wiſh to ſtand well at home and abroad. 4. Should I recover ever ſo high damages at law, I know of nothing to reſtrain them from paying them out of the public cheſt, which money extorted as it is, I deſire not to touch. 5. It is abſolutely impoſſible that I ſhould take a penny from a man in this way, after an acknowledgment of his error. The Cabal therefore are at liberty, if they pleaſe, to remonſtrate, memorial and leaſe make againſt me for ever: And as I can deviſe no other chaſtiſement for their impudence, nor get any other ſatisfaction for their inſolence, than what an action of defamation will give me, I ſhall reſt as eaſy as poſſible.

Yours, JAMES OTIS.

A Cronopolitico Quere, for the Solution of the Cabal.

HOW long might ſome half a dozen, or half a ſcore, pitiful Penſioners on Edinburgh or Dublin, rationally expect to live, after a full detection that they were, without the leaſt colour of truth, continually writing to London, that Scotland and Ireland were not only on the point of a general Revolt, but in actual Rebellion?

ADVERTISEMENT.

FROM a regard to truth, and to the character of a true ſoldier, whoſe honour, is ever juſtly dearer to him than life: It is with pleaſure I take this firſt opportunity, voluntarily and freely to DECLARE, in the moſt open and unreſerved as well as public manner, that in the premeditated, cowardly and villainous attempt of John Robinſon, Commiſſioner, and his confederates, laſt week, to aſſaſſinate me, I have not the leaſt reaſon to think, or even ſuſpect, that any officer or officers, either of the army or navy, were directly or indirectly concerned in ſo foul a deed, except a well known petty commander of an armed ſchooner, of about four ſwivels, who if fame for once tells truth, ſwore laſt year that this whole continent was in open rebellion.

JAMES OTIS.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) SEPTEMBER 20.

At a Meeting of the Merchants, September 16*th, at the houſe of Mr. Alexander Creighton in Savannah.*

IT was agreed, That the late Acts of Parliament, ſo fully and unanimouſly remonſtrated againſt by the Northern Colonies, were in themſelves unconſtitutional, and the mode of taxation totally [illegible] with the intereſt of the people.

At a time when we have great reaſon to believe that healing meaſures, and a redreſs of grievances, will be effectually purſued at the next meeting of Parliament, we think it unneceſſary to enumerate the whole, further than that, in general, and as far as we yet know, we approve of, and agree in ſentiments with the other provinces.

It was agreed, reſpecting this province in particular, that the mode of payment of ſuch duties is a great and additional grievance. The Sterling current money of this province, which was by an Act of Aſſembly aſſented to by his Majeſty, and declared equal in value to the Sterling money of Great-Britain, and a lawful tender in all payments, being refuſed in payment of ſuch duties, tends greatly to depreciate its value; a circumſtance greatly affecting every perſon any wiſe intereſted in this province; after having WISELY excluded us the benefit of the Spaniſh trade, the only channel through which ſpecie could poſſibly be procured, and then, by ſubſequent acts, impoſing duties on us, payable in Gold and Silver, ſhews that they are entirely ignorant of our internal police, and know little of what is beneficial to the colonies, and thereby prevent our having it even in our power to give a regular and conſtitutional aid to the mother-country, if ſuch was demanded.

WE THEREFORE RESOLVE, That any perſon or perſons whatſoever, importing any of the articles ſubject to ſuch duties, after having it in their power to prevent it, ought not only to be treated with the utmoſt contempt, but deemed enemies to their country, it being a circumſtance that would need only to be mentioned to any perſon inſpired with the leaſt ſenſe of liberty, that it may be deteſted and abhorred.

At a Meeting of a Number of the Inhabitants of this Province, on Tueſday the 19*th inſtant.*

The Hon. JONATHAN BRYAN, Eſq; in the Chair.

THE Committee appointed to prepare Reſolutions at this alarming criſis, by the impoſition of ſeveral Acts of the Britiſh Parliament, preſented the following, which were agreed to, and ordered to be publiſhed in the next Gazette.

We, inhabitants of the province of Georgia, finding ourſelves (together with the whole continent of America) reduced to the greateſt diſtreſs, and moſt abject condition, by the operation of ſeveral Acts of the Britiſh Legiſlature, by means whereof our property is arbitrarily and unjuſtly wreſted from us, contrary to the true ſpirit of our happy conſtitution, and the repeatedly confirmed birthright of every Briton; under all theſe oppreſſions, finding that the moſt dutiful and loyal petitions from the colonies for redreſs of thoſe grievances have not anſwered the ſalutary purpoſe we had a right to expect, and being deſtitute of all hope of relief from our multiplied and increaſing diſtreſſes, but by our induſtry, frugality, and œconomy, we are firmly reſolved never to be in the leaſt acceſſary to the loſs of any privilege we are intitled unto, THEREFORE we whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do ſolemnly agree and promiſe, to and with each other, that, until the ſaid acts are repealed, we will moſt faithfully abide by, adhere to, and fulfil the following RESOLUTIONS.

I. That we will encourage and promote American manufactures in general, and of this province in particular.

II. That as the raiſing of ſheep for the benefit of wool will be of the utmoſt utility, we do therefore engage not to kill or ſell any lambs that ſhall be yeaned before the 1ſt day of May in every year, to any butcher or other perſon whom we may have reaſon to ſuſpect intends to kill the ſame.

III. That we will promote the raiſing of cotton and flax, and encourage ſpinning and weaving.

IV. That we will, upon no pretence whatſoever, either upon our own account or on commiſſion, import into this province any of the manufactures of Great-Britain, or European, or Eaſt-India goods, other than may have been ſhipped in conſequence of former orders, except only negro cloth not exceeding 1s. 4d. per yard, oznabrugs, canvas, cordage, drugs and family medicines, plantation and workmens tools, nails, iron, and hardware of all ſorts, paper not exceeding 10s. per ream, fire arms, gunpowder, ſhot, lead, flints, ſalt, ſaltpetre, coals, printed books and pamphlets, white and ſtriped flannels not exceeding 1s. 6d. per yard, blankets, coarſe woollen cloths not exceeding 9s. per yard, white linen not exceeding 1s. 8d. per yard, woollen and thread hoſe not exceeding 24s. per dozen, ſtriped cottons not exceeding 1s. 4d. per yard, checks not exceeding 1s. 3d. per yard, felt hats not exceeding 48s. per dozen, bolting cloths, mill and grindſtones, cotton and wool cards and card wire, oznabrug and other threads not exceeding 8s. per lb. ſhoes not exceeding 48s. per dozen; as alſo the following goods neceſſary for the Indian trade, viz. ſtrouds, vermillion, beads, looking-glaſſes, and paint: And, excluſive of theſe articles, we do ſolemnly promiſe and declare, that we will immediately countermand all orders to our correſpondents in Great-Britain, for ſhipping any goods, wares, and merchandize, other than herein before excepted, and will ſell and diſpoſe of the goods we now or hereafter may have at the ſame rates and prices as heretofore.

V. That we will neither purchaſe or give any mourning at funerals.

VI. That, from and after the firſt day of June 1770, we will not import, buy, or ſell, any negroes that ſhall be brought into this province from Africa, nor, after the firſt day of January next, any negroes from the Weſt-Indies, or any other place, excepting from Africa aforeſaid; and if any goods or negroes be ſent to us, contrary to our agreement in this ſubſcription, ſuch goods ſhall be reſhipped or ſtored, and ſuch negroes reſhipped from this province, and not by any means offered for ſale therein.

VII. That we will not import on our own account, or on commiſſion, or purchaſe from any maſters of veſſels, tranſient perſons, or non-ſubſcribers, any wines, from and after the firſt day of March next.

VIII. That we will not purchaſe any negroes imported, or any goods, wares, or merchandize, from any reſident of this province, or tranſient perſon, that ſhall refuſe or neglect to ſign this agreement within five weeks from the date hereof, excepting it ſhall appear he has been unavoidably prevented from ſo doing: And every perſon ſigning, and not ſtrictly adhering to the ſame, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and alſo every non-ſubſcriber, ſhall be looked upon as no friend to his country.

☞ THE Printer hereof intreats the Favour of all thoſe who are in Arrears for this GAZETTE, to make Payment immediately; and hopes that thoſe of his Country Cuſtomers, who have not yet paid any Thing, will conſider him, and chearfully comply with his Requeſt, by ordering their Friends or Factors in Town to pay off their Accounts, which will be of very great Service to him.—And all Perſons whatever, who may be inclinable to favour the Printer of this Gazette with their ADVERTISEMENTS, may rely on its anſwering their End, as he is regular in publiſhing his Paper on the Day it is dated, and the Circulation of it is very extenſive; but it is hoped, at the ſame Time, that they will be pleaſed to ſend the CASH with them, as he is determined in future to receive none without, except it be thoſe of the Public, where he owes Money, or has an open Account; which Reſolution, he flatters himſelf, will give no Offence to thoſe who are really deſirous to ſerve him.

A New CATECHISM for CHILDREN,

WARSAW, June 28.

We have received the News, within these few Days, of some Skirmishes between the Russians and the Confederates in Great Poland: The Advantages were sometimes on one Side, and sometimes on the other. The Russian Carabineers, commanded by Col. Walkonskoy, have been beat in the Neighbourhood of Kutno; in other Places, the Confederates have been worsted; excepting this, Confederacies are every where forming, and all is in Motion in Poland.

July 1. The Troubles of this unhappy Country continually increase. The Constitutions have no Force, the Magistrates have no Power, and the Authority is no longer respected. In Great Poland, Part of Lithuania, and some other Countries, the Confederates do what they please, being no longer awed by the Presence of the Russian Troops.

July 5. According to Letters from the Frontiers of Moldavia, the Turkish Army is divided into three Corps; the one, which is the most considerable, is encamped near Bender; the second in the Neighbourhood of Jassy, and the third not far from Choczim. We hear that the Confederates are again in Possession of Czenstochow, and have blocked up Posnania. It is reported a Treaty of Pacification between the Ottomans and Russians is now on Foot, and likely to be brought about by the good Offices of the Court of Great-Britain.

July 8. Within these few Days the Confederates of Gostyn repulsed the Russian Colonel Wolkouski, but General Apraxin having sent the Colonel a considerable Reinforcement, the Insurgents were obliged to retire; however the Chief, Stempkowski, having joined the Confederates of Sochacrew, they fell upon the same Corps of Russians, and, after a great Slaughter, obliged them to take Refuge under the Cannon of this Metropolis.

An Account lately arrived that the Ottoman Army, consisting of 70,000 Men, under the Seraskier Ali Pacha, had passed the Niester, near Mohilow, by which rapid Step the Turks have taken Possession of several Russian Magazines. The same Account adds, that the advanced Guard of the Grand Signior's Army, had surprized the Corps under Prince Prosorowski, totally routed them, and killed the General: But a Letter received since declares, that the Ottoman Horse had only fallen upon a reconnoitring Party of Light Troops which the Prince commanded, whom they cut to Pieces, but that his Highness had the good Fortune to escape.

Hitherto the Russians not only keep the Turks and Tartars along the Niester at bay, but the Troops of their Van Guard frequently even make Incursions into the Ottoman Territories, and Prince Prosorowski is become the Terror of the Infidels. In Lithuania the Confederates have subjected almost the whole District of Brozick, but as a fresh Russian Corps has re-entered the Grand Dutchy, it is hoped Affairs will soon change their Aspect there. Many other Districts of Great and Little Poland, have likewise joined the Confederates more in Appearance than Reality; and there is reason to believe that Major General Cologne, who has received Reinforcements, will speedily act against them with Success.

July 12. Letters from the Frontiers of Turkey, confirm the Account, that 5000 Ottoman Volunteers had passed the Niester, and attacked the Russian Light Troops under Prince Prosorowski, and that they had been repulsed with the loss of 300 Men. The Outrages committed by the Tartars are incredible.

July 18. The Russian Army, commanded by Prince Gallitzin, repassed the Niester the 5th and 6th Instant, after General Prosorowski had defeated 4000 Turks, who opposed his Passage. This Action cost the Russians 400 Men, besides those that were drowned. It was at the Village of Uscie that the Russian Army passed the Neister, and entered Moldavia without Opposition. General Renecamp remains on this Side with a Body of Observation, which encamps within a League of Kaminieck. Lieutenant Colonel Drewitz, who escorted into Volhynia Prince Repnin, late Ambassador from the Empress of Russia at this Court, is returned into Lithuania, where he is preparing, after being joined by some other Bodies of Russians, to disperse the Confederacies that have been formed in that Province by the Instigation of the two Pulawskies. In the mean time Prince Gallitzin has defeated near Bialystock the Sieur Bierzynski, who, after carrying off several Hundreds of the Militia of Prince Radzivill, was marching with all his Forces, in order to engage in his Service the Troops that were there, which form the Guard of the Grand General Count Branicki. This Action, which happened on the 15th Instant, cost the Sieur Bierzynski the greatest Part of his Troops, and all his Artillery and Baggage.

July 19. Yesterday a Courier arrived here with Advice, that the Russian Army under Prince Gallitzin, after passing the Niester, had attacked and beaten on the third of this Month a Body belonging to the Turkish Army, commanded by the Seraskier. The Action began at 6 in the Morning, and lasted till 9. The Turks being put to the Route, and finding the Road to Jassy entirely shut up, some of them made their Escape to Choczim, and others fled towards Kalas. These are the only Particulars of this Affair given by the Courier. He adds, however, that he was charged with a more circumstantial Relation, but that the Confederates took it from him. These Circumstances make many doubt the Truth of the Action, as they observe that the Confederates would also have stopped the Courier.

The same Courier adds, that a Body of Russians, commanded by General Berg, has likewise beaten the Tartars, and killed 600 of them.

It is pretended also, that on the same Day Prince Gallitzin beat Marshal Bierzynski, who had been forced to abandon his Artillery and Baggage; and that Lieutenant Colonel Drewitz had likewise given a sensible Stroke to the Sieur Pulawski.

On the other Side, the Confederates have thrown all Polish Prussia into an Alarm. They keep the Town of Thorn blocked up, and seem to have a Design of attacking Mairenbourg.

According to Advices from Lithuania, Prince Radzivill, after being in vain invited by the Confederates to join them with the Troops in Pay, has found means to quit Biala, and to retire into a small Town, belonging to the Kingdom of Prussia.

There are also Letters which assure, that Count Potoeki, Cup-Bearer of Lithuania, has obtained from the Porte the Dignity of Bashaw of three Tails; and that he is at present, as well as Marshall Krasinski, in Podolia, with a Body of the Confederates, to which a considerable Detachment of the Turkish Troops have joined themselves.

NEW-PORT, (in Rhode-Island) September 18.

Mr. Southwick,

Please to insert the following Copy of a Letter, that the Merchants in the different Colonies may be apprized of the intrinsic Merit of the Writer, (who had a handsome Dressing for the same, in the West-Indies) and be properly prepared to do him that Justice and Honour, which his noble Intentions towards this Country so highly deserve.

SIR,

SINCE my last Letter to your Honour, I beg Leave to acquaint you that I am now at St. Croix, and shall sail for Newbern, in North-Carolina, To-morrow Morning. I hope your Honour has not forgot me. I would be very glad if you would be pleased to write me a Line as soon as possible you can, as I can't live long on Shore without your Honour's help---If your Honour will be pleased to make me Searcher of North-Carolina, or will be pleased to send me a Vessel there immediately, I will be bound to have some of the St. Croix Men, as here are five Sail lading for North-Carolina, and also a Number more for the other Northern Colonies, to sail very soon---the first of those bound for North-Carolina will sail about the first of September, the others very soon after them. If your Honour will appoint me Searcher, and send me a Vessel, I will stand a good Chance to get some of their St. Croix Rum, and likewise their Vessels; there is a large Trade from Martinico and this Place to the Northern Colonies, which might be easily detected by keeping a good Look-out for them, I must beg your Honour to write me as soon as possible, that I may know what to depend on.

I am, Your Honour's, Most humble Servant,

(Sign'd) GEORGE CORNELL.

Dated St. Croix, August 6, 1769.

On Tuesday last a Number of respectable Gentlemen, Members of the Hon. R---b-----n, one of the C---m-----rs, be rewarded with a Halter.

After which the Company retired, and the whole was conducted with Decency and good Order.

September 25. Last Friday was the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, which was observed here by hoisting the Colours at Fort-George, and a Discharge of Cannon on board the Senegal Sloop of War, &c. in this Harbour, with other Demonstrations of Joy.

A Gentleman at Elizabeth-Town, New-Jersey, in giving some Account of the COMET, says, "That by Calculation he made in the Morning of the 4th of September Instant, he found the Sun at Half after 7 o'Clock 2,793,104 Miles North of the Place the Comet was in at Two. In less than 30 Days he expected it would be parrallel with the Sun:---And that should it come betwixt us and the Sun, the Tail would then probably extend to the Earth; and therefore it became all to be prepared for Consequences so alarming as those which must then follow."---

Another Gentleman, in his Account of the same Comet, dated King's College (New-York) 9th September, says, "The immense Length of the Tail will doubtless cause many to fear an Intermixture betwixt it and our Atmosphere, but if this should happen, the Matter of this Tail falling down upon our Earth, would be productive of the most salutary Consequences both to the animal and vegetable World, by communicating to the Air and Earth, Qualities of the most salubrious Nature, as we may reasonably suppose such well refined Matter as the Vapour of this Comet is composed of."---

The Comet is now become invisible to us (for the present) as it rises cosmically, or nearly with the Sun; but, it it said, we may expect to see it again, at its Heliacal and Achronycal Appearance before the End of the Month, and that before it performs its Revolution round the Sun.

NEW-LONDON, (in Connecticut) September 8.

By Capt. Blackeney, who arrived last Friday from St. Croix and Turk's-Islands, we are informed, that just before he left the former, one George Cornell, well known in New-Port for almost every infamous action in the power of man to commit, was discovered there of giving information to the board of commissioners, with respect to the trade of that and some other Islands to the continent. Mr. Cornell met with part of the treatment such gentry as he sometimes receive, and always merit---we are told he just escaped with life.---A gentleman who came with Captain Blackeney says, he saw several letters fro Mr. Commissioner Robi son to this wretch, copies of which were put up at the public house. A gentleman at St. Croix has taken a copy of one of Cornell's letters to his honour. Mr. Cornell wrote a letter to Capt. Blackeney in which he acknowledges himself the writer of the letter to Mr. Robinson, says he intended no harm, and begs to be taken off the island, where he expected every moment to be put to death by the populace; but Capt. Blackeney did not chuse to comply with his request.

If there was the least doubt before, surely this will fully convince the merchant what he has to expect from persons capable of making use of such wretches as Cornell, and taking such mean low methods of information.

New-Castle, August 28, 1769.

The New-Castle County COMPACT.

WE the subscribers, freeholders, and freemen, of the county of New-Castle, upon Delaware, taking into consideration, that our trade is restricted, our rights invated, arbitrary courts, wholly dependent upon ministers, erected over us, our present security destroyed, by some late acts of the British parliament; and that a plan is laid, and measures adopted in our mother country, which, if carried into execution, must soon deprive us of even the shadow of liberty, and of every thing that is dear and valuable to Englishmen: And being of opinion, that it is not only lawful, but our indispensible duty, to use our utmost influence to avert the calamity, misery and slavery, impending over us, and all our brethren in North-America; and apprehending that the agreements of the merchants and traders of these colonies, not to import certain enumerated articles from any part of Great-Britain, until the said acts of parliament are repealed, are wise, just and salutary, and will have a great tendency to this end; DO hereby testify and declare our approbation of them to prefer the future welfare of their country to their present private emolument.

In order to contribute our mite to this public and patriotic work, and willing to co-operate, as far as in us lies, with those advocates and friends to liberty and their country, do hereby mutually promise, declare and agree, upon our word, honour, and the faith of christians.

I. That from and after this date we will not import, or bring, into any part of America, any goods, wares or merchandizes whatsoever, from Great-Britain, contrary to the spirit and intention of the agreement of the merchants of the city of Philadelphia, in the province of Pennsylvania.

II. That we never will have any dealings, commerce or intercourse whatsoever, with any man, residing in any part of the British dominions, who shall for lucre, or any other purpose, import, or bring, into any part of America, any article or thing, contrary to the said agreement.

III. That any one of us, who shall wilfully break this compact, shall have his name published in the public news-papers, as a betrayer of the civil and religious rights of Americans, and be for ever after deemed infamous and an enemy to this country.

Signed by order, and in behalf of the Grand Jury for the court, in August sessions, 1769, by

SAMUEL PATTERSON, Foreman.

We hear that a number of the principal freeholders of the said county, assembled at Christiana-Bridge, on Saturday last, in pursuance of notice given for that purpose, when the occasion of their meeting, the grievances complained of by North-Americans, and the most probable methods of obtaining redress, were opened, and fully explained, and the above compact was read, approved, and signed by all present. It is said that it will soon be signed by every freeholder and freeman in the county, and that the other counties in that government will immediately follow the example.

Some resolutions were made, nemine contradicente, in favour of persons, not inhabitants of the county, who should be so weak as to import any goods there contrary to the agreement; particularly, that they should be stored, effectually secured, and taken care of, until the obnoxious acts of parliament were repealed, except the same should be prevented by the imprudence of the owners.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.

Extract of a Letter from Shamokin, on Susquehanna, dated August 23, 1769.

"I have the pleasure to acquaint you, that the Conference held at this Place, by Col. Francis, with the Indians inhabiting in and near Shanango, was concluded Yesterday, greatly to mutual Satisfaction; and that the Indians, from their whole conduct, during the Conference, seemed earnestly desirous of maintaining Peace and good Understanding with us.

"The Occasion of this Conference was to make a present of Condolance to SENECA GEORGE, a leading Chief, and faithful Friend of the English, whose only Son, a Youth of about 18, was unhappily shot some Time since, below the Mouth of Mad-Creek, on Susquehanna.

"On Saturday, the 19th, Seneca George, attended by Left-Night, the Conoy King, and also by an Onondago Chief, and about 52 more Indians, principally Nanticokes and Conoys, came down the River in Canoes; and soon after waited on Col. Francis, desiring that Monday might be appointed for Business, and that they might have proper Refreshments sent them in the mean Time. On Sunday, they desired to be present at Divine Service, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Smith, who addressed the Conclusion of his Discourse particularly to them, interpreted by Isaac Still.

"On Monday there were above 100 of our own people present at the Fort; and Col. Francis desired 3 or 4 of them, viz. Joseph Shippen, Esq; Provincial Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Smith, and Charles Stuart, Esq; to give their Assistance in taking the Minutes, &c.---After delivering the Governor's Message, with the proper Belts, &c. Colonel Francis distributed the Present of Condolance, making the best Apology he could for the Smallness thereof; telling Seneca George, that he was sorry it had not been known that so many of his Friends and Relations would attend him; but the Waters were so low, our Canoes could not bring up many Goods at once, nor could they now be sent down for more.---The Indians desired till next Day to consider what had been said; but did not come till Wednesday, the 23d, when Seneca George, who seemed oppressed with Grief, said only a few general Things, expressing his Satisfaction in the Manner the Governor had taken to wipe away his Tears; and leaving the Conoy King to speak the Rest---the Purport of which was, "That in the sad Affair they were met about, our People, and not theirs, were to blame; that their Nations, naming the Conoys and Nanticokes, tho' frequently hurt by us, had never once pulled one Hair from an Englishman's Head. That with Respect to the Man who had done them the Injury-----they should well know what to do, if one of their people had been guilty of the like to us, but that we best knew how to deal with such of our own People as were led away by the evil Spirit, and they left the Matter wholly to us, hoping we would be strong to hold fast the ancient Chain of Friendship, and take Care that none of our young Men ever did the like again.---They concluded with saying, they should now bury this Affair, and return Home To-morrow; but that they were many in Number, and would stand in Need of more Provisions on their Way.---Colonel Francis shewed great Address, and Knowledge of the Temper of Indians in his Answer to this; in which he expressed the Satisfaction which he (and all who were with him) felt in the good Disposition of their Indian Brethren; and told them, that he would that Night deliver to them every Thing he could spare of his own, or procure from others, to assist them in their Way home.

"Mr. Frederic Weiser then desired, as the public Business was over, that he might, thro' Col. Francis, say a few Words to Seneca George, and the other Indians; the Purport of which was, that "being the eldest Son of their old Friend and Brother CONRAD WEISER, he and all his Family had shed many Tears for the sad Affair that had happened, and the more so, as the Man suspected to have done the Mischief, was his own Cousin, the Sister's Son of their old Friend Conrad, all whose Family had ever loved the Indians, and he could not tell by what evil Spirit any of them could ever be led to do this Thing; but that the Man would have a fair Trial, and if guilty (which it was hoped might not be the Case) the Family of Conrad Weiser would not offer any Thing to screen him from Justice, and that they trusted, whatever might become of this Man, the Indians would not, on his Account, harbour any Ill-will against any others the Descendants of CONRAD."

"This Speech was accompanied with a present from Mr. Weiser to Seneca George, who, having sat a few Minutes with his Eyes towards the Ground, and Tears visibly falling from them, he started up, and delivered a short Speech in so noble and beautiful a Manner, that it seemed perfectly understood by us, even before it was interpreted, and did not fail to draw Tears from several who were present, especially towards the Conclusion, at observing the Greatness and Dignity of Spirit, wherewith he stepped across the Council Fire, to shake Hands with the Gentlemen at the Table, and to bury all in Oblivion. He did not seem to have known before, that the Man suspected of having killed his Son, was any Connexion of Conrad Weiser---He declared, he "was glad to see a Son of old Conrad, and to hear him say such "good Things, and mention a little of the old Friendship---Yes, "said he---Old Conrad Weiser was indeed my Brother and Friend "---he was a Counsellor of the Six Nations, and knew all that "was in their Hearts---I am glad the Tears burst from the Eyes "of his Family, as they have done from mine on this sad Affair; "for he that was killed was a Son, that lay near my Heart---- "He was all the Child I had, and now I am old, the Loss of him "hath almost entirely cut away my Heart---I am pleased that "Brother Weiser, the Son of my old Friend, hath taken this Me-"thod to wipe my Eyes----and I will remember this Grief no "more to the Prejudice of any of his Family, but believe, that "an evil Spirit put it into the Man who did it."

"I verily believe that never was there a more striking Example of true Oratory exhibited in the whole World, than in the Delivery of this Speech---Part of which only was noted down by me. Action, Looks, Gesture----every Thing corresponded to express the strong and natural Feelings of the Soul. During the whole that he spoke, he kept advancing Step by Step, still towards the Table from the Place where the Indians sat; and after finishing the last Words above mentioned, he sprung forward to Mr. Weiser, and taking him by the Hand-----"I have, says he, no Ill-will to your Family, Brother Weiser! None to you Colonel Francis---none to you---nor you"---shaking all the Gentlemen at the Table by the Hand, and spreading forth both Arms, he turned compleatly round to all the Company present, and added---- "nor have I any Ill-will to any of my Brethren the English, on Account of this sad Affair."

"I hope this short Account may be of some Use to quiet the Minds of our own People, as well as to shew something of the Temper of the Indians, and lead us to a prudent and proper Treatment of them. The Notes I took were only of such Things as struck me most; but full Minutes of the whole were taken for the Use of the Government, by the Gentlemen whom Colonel Francis got to assist him on that Occasion; and there was an excellent Interpreter, Isaac Still. I forgot to mention that Colonel Francis had a difficult Part to act with near 50 Delawares, &c. who had come down, on the Rumour of a general Treaty, and seemed greatly uneasy when they found they could not be admitted by the other Tribes either into the Conference, or to have any Share of the Present, which was intended only for Seneca George, and the Relations of the deceased Indian.

"These Delawares complained that this Disappointment had made them lose Part of their Hunting Season, and that now they had no Provisions to get Home; so that the Settlers became apprehensive their Cattle might be killed, and other Damage done. The Colonel therefore found it necessary to send for their Chiefs, to explain Matters to them, and to receive a Message from them to the Governor; with which Treatment, and the giving them such Provisions as could be spared, he sent them away seemingly well-pleased."

September 21. Capt. Fearns, from Grenada, on the 13th Inst. in Lat. 35. 30, Long. 70, came along-side a Wreck, which proved to be the Sloop Sword Fish, Capt. Ja. Card, from Cape-Fear for Jamaica, 9 Days out, who had lost his Mast, Sails, Rigging, Boats, and every Thing off his Deck, in a Gale of Wind on the 8th Inst. had his Counter beat in, and eight Feet Water in the Hold, so that the Sea made a fair Breach over her, but being loaded

th Lumber, it kept her from ſinking; the Captain and Crew were much diſabled, and worn out with Fatigue, when he took them all on board, and has brought them in with him, but the Sea ran ſo high, he could ſave nothing belonging to the Veſſel. And on the 15th, about 50 Leagues from our Capes, he ſpoke with Capt. Allen, of Nantucket, who informed him, the Fleet of Whalers had ſuffered great Damage in the ſame Gale.

From a late LONDON PAPER.

Extract of a Letter from BOSTON, February 17.

"IN your laſt letter you ſeem to doubt of the number of people in the four provinces of New-England; I ſhall now endeavour to make it fully appear; the year before laſt, every town ſent in the numbers of their males from ſixteen years to ſixty, in order to be taxed, and the returns were eighty-five thouſand ſeven hundred, and there were fifty-two towns that did not ſend in any account, becauſe they were not incorporated, ſome of which towns have one hundred, and others not more than fifty families, and many who were incorporated did not ſend their full numbers, ſome families were ſo crafty that in many towns they ſaved one fourth part. Thoſe that are beſt acquainted with our numbers, ſay we have more than one hundred and twenty thouſand from ſixteen to ſixty, and in the year 1732, we had in this province forty-ſeven thouſand, by that rule we now muſt have that number. As for Connecticut, I heard ten years ago that they had ſixty-five thouſand. If you remember, in the time of the Stamp-Act, there were no Courts of Juſtice open for want of ſtamp-paper, then the people in the counties in Connecticut were numbered, and entered into an aſſociation to keep good order, and there were more than ſeventy thouſand. I went to Caſco-Bay the laſt ſummer, and ſtopt at Portſmouth. I then made enquiry into the numbers, and found they exceeded thirty thouſand; when I returned home, I went up to Londonderry, and I made a further enquiry, and found they muſt exceed thirty-five thouſand; and it is allowed by all, that they have in Rhode-Iſland government ſixteen thouſand.

The Maſſachuſetts, I ſet down no more than			100,000
New-Hampſhire	------	------	32,000
Connecticut	------	------	70,000
Rhode-Iſland	------	------	16,000
			218,000
	Multiplied by		6
			1,308,000

You will ſee I have only multiplied the number of males by ſix, I think they ſhould be multiplied by ſix an a half, or ſeven in this healthy country. I was greatly ſurprized when I went to the weſtward the laſt fall, as far as Connecticut, and rode one hundred miles up the banks of the river, to find they increaſed as faſt to the weſtward, as I found they did to the eaſtward. A great number of the towns that I paſſed through have one, but many two, three, four, and ſome five, pariſh churches; moſt families, after they have been married from ſixteen to twenty years, have from eight to twelve children. They generally marry as ſoon as they are 21 years of age, and almoſt all before they are 25; the grants generally provide for them by purchaſing, or grants from the government. They give them a cow or two, a horſe, a yoke of oxen, and ſome ſwine. It is remarked, that thoſe who are induſtrious, provide themſelves with proviſions after the firſt year. Connecticut river, according to my obſervation, is parallel to the ſea coaſt, about 100 miles from the entrance. It will ſoon be ſettled up, between that and the ſea, we have ſettled within 20 miles of Albany, beyond the river. They are carrying on large ſettlements on the eaſt ſide of Lake George and Champlain, and I am ſure it will ſurpriſe you, when I ſay we are ſettled as far to the eaſtward as St. Croix. The Captain of Fort Pownal, who lay at Penobſcot, ſays, they have two thouſand men to the eaſtward of the fort; it fills very faſt from Caſco-Bay to Penobſcot. We have alſo ſettled ſixty miles upon Kennebeck river, and have two companies to lay out fifty-two miles further to the northward, one company goes to the eaſt, the other to the weſt ſide of the river. You will think it ſtrange, that the vegetation fourteen days ſooner, eighty miles from the ſea, owing to a ridge of mountains to the north, and the goodneſs of the ſoil. We had no more than 400 families 16 years ago on all our Kennebeck tract, and now it is made into a county, by the name of Lincoln; and by the laſt accounts, there are more than 10,000 from ſixteen to ſixty, including 2000 to the eaſt of Penobſcot. This number is not all owing to natural increaſe; there is a great number goes down every year from this and the neighbouring governments of New-England. By this account you can form ſome of the growth of this country, and in thirty years you may of its being fully ſettled from Albany and the eaſt of the lakes or ſea-coaſts. Thoſe that are ſettled in the neighbourhood of the lakes, the communication with Great-Britain will be by St. Lawrence river. I wrote you word, that before 100 years were paſſed, we ſhould have as many people in the four governments of New-England, as you have in all Great-Britain, and I believe now may put Ireland into the ſcale, and then it would be an equal balance. I have made obſervations of our increaſe, from the natural growth, and found in many towns they have doubled their own number in fourteen years: It is the opinion of many gentlemen in Connecticut, that they double in this time. However the calculation I made for you, ſuppoſes that they double but in eighteen years. I think his Majeſty and miniſters have been miſinformed, with regard to Connecticut river: they ſuppoſe it runs north, and have bounded New-York as far eaſt as Connecticut river; the river runs eighty miles further than Caſco-Bay. When I was at Falmouth the laſt ſummer, they told me they propoſed cutting a road from their frontiers to Connecticut river. If New-York was bounded eaſt by a north line, to begin at a particular ſpot, where it ſhall be moſt advantageous to this province, New-Hampſhire and New-York, and the bounds be juſtly aſcertained, it would prevent diſputes and ſhedding of blood, which was the caſe but a little while ago."
